 DON WELLES: Wade's father, seen in a parallel world where San Francisco has been taken over economically by a mammoth mall, he's a decent, warm man who works at the mall with his daughter, Kelly—Wade's older sister (in this world, Don's wife and second baby, who would have been Wade, died in childbirth). Somewhat cowed by Kelly's relentless ambition, he's actually saddened and disgusted by her heartlessness, which was not how he raised her to behave. Unaware that Wade is his daughter in another world, he confides in her about his past, their family and his secret despair over Kelly. Ultimately, he's overjoyed and proud when Kelly, with Wade's help, comes to her senses...GUEST LEAD (9) [Copyright 1996, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.]

mid - late 20's
 KELLY WELLES: Wade's sister, seen in a parallel world where San Francisco has been economically taken over by a mammoth mall, she's a driven, ambitious young woman (two years older than Wade), who works at the mall along with her dad. Intent on rising within the corporate structure, she is cold and heartless, and doesn't seem to realize, or care, about the hurt she inflicts on her father when she denigrates his job. Unaware that the man she works for, Bernsen, is a nefarious swindler who is cheating thousands of people out of their money and land, she is shocked and changes for the better when she learns the truth about him—and about Wade...GUEST LEAD (9) [Copyright 1996, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.]

late 20's - early 30's
 MR. BERNSEN: A younger Gordon Gekko type, he's the President of the mall, an astute, vicious and unscrupulous businessman who's developed a scheme to subliminally convince people to spend all their money at the mall, where he extends them a huge line of credit which they usually end up defaulting on, resulting in Mr. Bernsen virtually owning them for the rest of their lives. Heartless and cold, he believes Christmas is really about cash flow. He's eventually nailed by the Sliders...GUEST LEAD (13)

MARY: In her late 20s and expensively dressed, she leaves her baby in a local church and then disappears. Found by the determined Arturo, she turns out to be so far indebted to the mall that she is a virtual "indentured servant" to Bernsen, forced to work as a cleaning woman in the mall to pay off her debt—an impossible task on her salary. Heartsick over giving up her baby, she is surprised to learn from the Sliders that Bernsen has been encoding subliminal messages to mall shoppers on the constantly playing monitors, literally hypnotizing them into spending huge sums of money, then foreclosing on their lives when they can't keep up with their line of credit. She is overjoyed when the Sliders help her get her baby, her self esteem and her life back...GUEST LEAD (18)

"SEASON'S GREDINGS"

ONE HOUR EPISODIC/FOX

CAROL: 19 years old and terminally perky, she works at one of the concessions at the mall's food court, and initially shocks the Sliders when she tells them how much their hot dogs and fries are. She's a little surprised at their ignorance of how things work, but good naturedly tells them they might be able to find seasonal work in the mall. Later, she's fired by Kelly for not spending the required 80% of her paycheck at the mall, which she futilely explains is because her mother's on a very expensive medication that's not an allowable expense...~~4 speeches & 7 lines, 2 scenes (7)~~ [Copyright 1996, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.]

~~mid 90's~~
 INSTRUCTOR: This instructor at the mall is in his 20s, twerpy, with a business suit and clipboard, who's run through his new-employee spiel so many times he speaks in a run-on monotone, without even hearing it. He briefs the Sliders on the rules governing mall employees ("you cannot leave the mall with more than twenty percent of your wages. The rest goes back into the system") and how to do their Christmas elf jobs...~~4 speeches & 6 lines, 2 scenes (11)~~ [Copyright 1996, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.] John Fleck (Sliders)

~~later 30's early 40's~~
 PRIEST: This priest at a local church tells Arturo, with compassion, that they can't care for the abandoned baby and will have to turn him over to welfare. He later remarks that this is not the first orphan they've encountered from the mall...~~2 speeches & 2 lines, 1 scene (4)~~

1ST KID: This squirmy kid on Arturo's Santa Claus'd lap rattles off a list of expensive toys he wants, and when Arturo reacts, he snaps, Damien-like, "Cut the crap and give me what I want"...~~3 lines, 1 scene (17)~~

2ND KID: This kid listens with amazement as Arturo tells a group of kids some Christmas stories...~~1 speech, 1 scene (42)~~

TV ANNOUNCER: This TV announcer does the voice-over for an auto-floss commercial...~~5 lines, 1 scene (24) VOICE OVER ONLY~~

STORY LINE: The Sliders find themselves in a San Francisco where the whole city has been taken over by a mammoth mall. Intent on finding MARY, a desperate mother's who's abandoned her baby, they take jobs inside the mall, where they discover Wade's sister, KELLY, and father, DON, are working for the unscrupulous mall president, MR. BERNSEN...
