ADRA: (Pronounced A-Dra) A hauntingly exotic (non-African-American) woman in her 20s, with milky white eyes, whose head tilts in an odd way, Adra is a blind witch-woman with a twangy, hill country manner of speech, who lives in a rural community. Deeply religious (and sure-footed in spite of her blindness), Adra believes in many things beyond human perception: she tells the future via Tarot cards, has premonitory dreams, and knows all about the Foggins, the mysterious tribe who live in the yellow fog. When the Sliders show up in her isolated community, Adra instinctively knows to trust them, and assists them in their efforts to track down the malevolent Colonel Rickman...LEAD (28) [Copyright 1997, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.]

BUNT LA CROIX: A grizzled man in his 40s, Bunt has never seen a day of health or dental services in his life. A backwoodsman who lives in a ramshackle cabin, Bunt lost his wife in childbirth, and now fears that his daughter Lucy, who has fallen into one of Rickman's mystery comas, will soon die as well. Stand-offish with strangers, Bunt greets the Sliders with a cocked shotgun, but loses his testy edge when he learns they have come to help Lucy. A man with a pronounced rural manner of speech, Bunt allies himself firmly with the Sliders—once he realizes they have good intentions...LEAD (10)

COLONEL ANGUS RICKMAN: Early to mid 30s, Caucasian male, a haughty, wild looking and darkly dangerous man, Rickman is the nemesis of the Sliders, and is a well-spoken man with an eerie voice. Able to induce comas in others, Rickman has slid into a strange forested world ahead of the other Sliders, and has joined forces with the Foggins, a mysterious tribe able to live in a poisonously sulfurous fog. Having mastered the ability to live inside the fog, Rickman sneaks to the edge of the fog to snare his victims, and tauntingly dares the Sliders to come and get him...RECURRING ROLE (28) NOTE: This role was originally played by Roger Daltrey, who will soon morph into a Peter Weller/Aidan Quinn type.

AGENT RUEZ: A man in his late 20s to early 30s, built, smart looking, Ruez is an FBI agent on the trail of his partner, who has died in the fog. Having grown up near the Foggins area, Ruez knows a great deal about the primitive lifestyle of the Foggins, and crisply summarizes what is known about their mysterious folkways. Knowing that "badges" are not popular among the rural inhabitants of the region, Ruez plays a lone hand, steering clear of the locals while trying to find out the reason for the sudden rash of mysterious comas. He assists Maggie and Quinn in their efforts to explore the fog-shrouded country of the Foggins...4 speeches & 12 lines, 3 scenes (12) [Copyright 1997, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.]

STORY LINE: The Sliders find a strange tribe of hill people who live deep inside a poisonous fog of sulfur fumes...

LUCY LA CROIX: Bunt's daughter, Lucy is a beautiful girl who is in a coma after having confronted Colonel Rickman near the fog line.
