DUCHESS DANIELLE: A very attractive young woman who is a direct descendant of Thomas Jefferson and Sally Hemmings, she is a royal personage in the Sliders' latest parallel universe, where the United States is a monarchy riddled with intrigue and political machinations. Instantly recognized by Rembrandt as the woman he loved and lost in the real world, she is about 7 months pregnant with the child of Rembrandt's double, the Duke. Very much in love with her missing husband despite their frequent quarrels, the worried Danielle – along with everyone else in this world – assumes that Rembrandt is actually the Duke. After the unborn baby is transferred to Rembrandt for the rest of its gestation, Danielle gradually realizes that Rembrandt, though he is loving towards her, is not really her husband. She then elicits his story of the Sliders' predicament, and the two of them manage to survive the murderous plots of Danielle's apparently innocuous personal aide, Lady Mary...GUEST LEAD (2) [Copyright 1996, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.]

GEORGE STELLOS: A handsome, conservatively dressed, unflusterable man, he is Lady Mary's purported nephew and the Deputy Master of the Royal Household in the latest parallel universe. Initially convinced that Rembrandt is the Duke and the other Sliders are his personal assistants, Stellos appears to be a co-conspirator of Lady Mary's, since after the King's death he is slated to become the Regent and temporary ruler in place of the heir. However, he eventually reveals that he is completely unaware of his "aunt's" amoral political maneuvers – in fact, Stellos learns that he is actually the son of Lady Mary and the late King, and so qualifies as royalty in his own right. Ultimately, he proves to be a loyal subject who is horrified by his aunt's murderous activities...GUEST LEAD (5) [Copyright 1996, BREAKDOWN SERVICES, LTD.]

LADY MARY: The apparently innocuous personal aide to Duchess Danielle and the purported aunt of George Stellos, Lady Mary is actually a treacherous, conniving murderess who is prepared to do anything to gain power within the monarchy. Secretly the King's lover and the mother of George, his child, she clandestinely arranges the assassination of the royal family, as part of her plan to gain control of the government. After the arrival of Rembrandt, Lady Mary concludes that her assassination attempt on Duke Rembrandt must have failed, and she continues to plot with the Captain of the Guard to finish the job, unaware that Rembrandt, rather than the Duke, is actually carrying the heir to the throne. She is ultimately thwarted by the combined efforts of the Sliders and Stellos, whose "betrayal" shocks her deeply...GUEST LEAD (2)

PAGE TWO...

CAPTAIN OF THE GUARDS: A formidable warrior and clandestine ally to Lady Mary, he assists with her plans to arrange for Stellos' ascension to power in place of the royal family. At her direction, he ruthlessly kills the Duke's would-be assassin, then he commits arson – to nearly deadly effect – at the Duke and Duchess' royal retreat...5 lines, 4 scenes (13)

NURSE: This obstetrics nurse in the latest parallel universe rushes to the aide of the pregnant Danielle, and she preps Rembrandt for his unexplained role in the pregnancy. After administering a powerful tranquilizer, she cheerfully oversees the transfer of the baby to Rembrandt...2 speeches & 6 lines, 3 scenes (3)

ANCHORWOMAN: Seen on television, this female reporter for the Royal News Network reports on the Duchess' pregnancy, then later on the death of the royal family...5 speeches, 2 scenes (5)

GUARD: This suspicious guard tries to push past Wade into the Duke and Duchess' bedroom, but is dissuaded by the story that they are having a domestic dispute...3 lines, at least 1 scene (31)

ASSASSIN: Hired by Lady Mary to dispatch the Duke, this failed assassin swears he saw the Duke drown. He is killed by the Captain of the Guard at Mary's direction...1 speech & 1 line, 1 scene (13)

GUARD: This guard restrains the newly arrived Rembrandt at the hospital, then upon seeing his face, apologizes and calls him "Your Grace"...1 line, 1 scene (2)

DRIVER: The driver of the Royal limo, he/she freezes and looks obviously guilty upon seeing Stellos, then complains that he was sworn to secrecy...1 line, 1 scene (40)

LITTLE WINGED GIRL: A scared-looking little girl who is apparently on the verge of being thrown out of a window by her mother, she reveals wings and shouts, "Look Mommy, no feet!"...1 line, 1 scene (48)

MOTHER: This mother appears to be pushing her little girl out the window, then she shrugs and tells the Sliders that "it's the only way they learn"...1 line, 1 scene (48)

STORY LINE: Mistaken for the royal spouse of the DUCHESS DANIELLE in a United States monarchy that is riddled with intrigue and political machinations, the newly impregnated Rembrandt and the other Sliders must fend off the murderous LADY MARY, while avoiding the suspicions of royal official GEORGE STELLOS...
